Summary:

The Eco-friendly Ganesh Idol Making Workshop was organized by Pravara Rural College of Architecture on 27th August 2022, the workshop was conducted at the PRCA campus, and it garnered enthusiastic participation from both students and faculty members and outsider. Led by Teacher Coordinator Ar. Kapil Burhade and Student Coordinator Namrata Chavhan, the workshop featured a sculptor Mr. Ninand Jadhav as the guest. The workshop commenced with an inaugural address by Mr. Ninand Jadhav, an artist and guest for the event. He enlightened the participants about the importance of eco-friendly practices and the adverse effects of conventional Ganesh idols on the environment. He emphasized the use of clay which is biodegradable and do not cause harm to water bodies during immersion.

To foster a spirit of inclusivity, the event hosted a competition open to outsiders and their families. This gesture encouraged wider participation and reinforced the importance of environmental sustainability in celebrations. The workshop took an inspiring turn as the participants, numbering 77, not only learned the art of making eco-friendly idols but also extended their creativity towards making additional idol for the college's upcoming Ganesh festival. These idols were distributed among the college sweepers and workers, spreading the importance of eco-friendly practices, joy and camaraderie within the campus community. The main segment of the event involved a hands-on session where participants were provided with eco-friendly materials (Shadu Maati) to create their own Ganesh idols. Expert instructors, along with faculty and student coordinators, guided the participants through the process. The participants were enthusiastic and showcased great creativity in their creations.

The instructors demonstrated the best practices for sculpting the idols, using natural colours and eco-friendly adhesives. They also shared tips on ensuring the structural integrity of the idols during the making process. After the hands-on session, a lively and interactive Q&A session was conducted. Participants had the opportunity to clarify their doubts and seek further guidance on eco-friendly practices from Mr. Ninand Jadhav. The organizers Ar. Kapil Burhade express their heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Ninand Jadhav for his invaluable insights and guidance, which greatly enriched the workshop. Special thanks are extended to all the participants, both from within and outside the college, for their active engagement and enthusiasm in making the event a resounding success.

Summary:

Pravara Rural College of Architecture organized a creative and eco-friendly initiative to develop a children's play area at Adgaon Z.P.School. The project focused on using recycled materials, particularly old tires, to create a playful and safe space for the children to explore and enjoy.

On January 9 and 10, 2023, a team of 12 enthusiastic participants, including students and volunteers, gathered at Adgaon Z.P. School to undertake the development of the children's play area. The event was guided by the Teacher Coordinators, Ar. Nikhil Vikhe, and Ar. Charuta Sonparote, along with the dedicated Student Coordinator, Anjali Ubale.

The participants creatively repurposed old tires and other recycled materials to construct innovative play structures, such as tire swings, climbing frames, and play tunnels, providing a stimulating play environment for the children. The project highlighted the importance of using recycled materials to minimize environmental impact and promote sustainability in play area development.

The Z.P. School staff and local community members actively participated in the project, demonstrating collaborative efforts to enhance the facilities for the children.

The team ensured that all play structures were safe and child-friendly, following necessary safety guidelines to provide a secure play environment for the children.

Ar. Deepika Arbatti expresses its appreciation to all the participants and the Teacher Coordinators for their commitment to creating a positive impact in the lives of the children and the community.

It is expected that the newly developed play area will provide endless joy and learning opportunities for the children at Z.P. School, fostering a love for sustainability and environmental consciousness from a young age.

Summary:

Amphitheatre. On 08 March 2022. Program was conducted by Dr. Varsha Mahavarkar who is the well-known doctor of the locality. Dr Varsha told students that International Women's Day is a globally celebrated annually on March 8 to commemorate the cultural, political, and socioeconomic achievements of women. It is also a focal point in the women's rights movement, bringing attention to issues such as gender equality, reproductive rights, and violence and abuse against women. It began back in February 1909.

The following year, at the second International Conference of Working Women in Copenhagen, Denmark, women's rights activist Clara Zetkin called for an international women's day to give women a greater voice to further their demands for equal rights. Dr. Varsha discussed menstrual hygiene is a subject which is as old as humanity but has gained recent importance due to the readiness of the society to accept its challenges. Young girls of some communities across various cultures, consider menstruation as a taboo. They feel that menstruation is a curse or burden. People considered women as filthy & impure in their menstrual period. Many communities restrict menstruating women from activities such as cooking, touching food, being with family members, attending religious ceremonies, and bathing.

Sanitary pads lead to rashes, the feeling of wetness and being uncomfortable, leaks, odour. They must be changed every 6 hours, according to medical professionals, and if you do not change them, they can either lead to leaks or cause foul odour and also pose a threat to your health. It is not possible to swim on your period if you use sanitary pads. Tampons, on the other hand, are better than pads as they do not cause rashes and similar troubles but cannot be left inside for longer than 8 hours. If left in the vagina for longer than that, they can cause Toxic Shock Syndrome. However, they still burn a hole in your pocket and also contribute to waste and degrade the environment. Leaks and odour are also common problems in women who use tampons, just like sanitary pads.

The newest entrant when it comes to sanitary hygiene is menstrual cups that have been gaining popularity for the last year among urban women. Known to be environment-friendly, a lot of women vouch for the fact that their entire period experience has changed since they switched to menstrual cups and there definitely are reasons.

So we invite Dr. Varsha Mahavalkar to educate students to use menstrual cup and its advantages. Dr. Varsha is researching on menstrual cups so it was helpful for our girls to understand the importance of using menstrual cups.
