Summery:

The Inner Wheel Club of Shrirampur has taken a commendable step during the pandemic by adopting the village of Moriya Chinchorey near Sonai, District- Ahmednagar. In collaboration with Pravara Rural College of Architecture, the club collected old clothes donated by local students from Loni. The collected clothes were then handed over to the club's president, Sujata Shedge. To further extend their support, the president and a few members of the Inner Wheel Club visited the adopted village and distributed the donated clothes among the villagers. Objectives were Encourage students to actively participate in helping society during the challenging times of the pandemic. Contribute to the village adoption activity undertaken by the Inner Wheel Club of Shrirampur, focusing on the welfare of the villagers in Moriya Chinchorey. The activity was led by Ar. Dipeeka Arbatti, who served as the Activity Head, coordinating and facilitating the collaboration between Pravara Rural College of Architecture and the Inner Wheel Club of Shrirampur.

By adopting the village and donating clothes, the Inner Wheel Club of Shrirampur and the students of Pravara Rural College of Architecture demonstrated their commitment to social responsibility and community welfare during the pandemic. Their efforts to provide essential items to the villagers in Moriya Chinchorey showcase their dedication to making a positive impact on the lives of those in need during these challenging times.

Aim:	To Conduct Online Drawing Competition: Awareness About Corona.
Objectives :	i. To Create awareness about Corona. ii. To sensitize students about current pandemic situation
Duration:	15 May 2020 - 10 June 2020

Summary:

Pravara Rural College of Architecture, Loni, organized an Online Drawing Competition during the COVID-19 pandemic with the objective of creating awareness about the virus and sensitizing students about the ongoing pandemic situation. The competition was held in two groups, and a total of 83 participants registered, including students from outside Maharashtra. The event aimed to engage students creatively while imparting crucial information about the importance of staying safe during the pandemic.

The Online Drawing Competition was an innovative way to engage students during the pandemic and utilize their creativity to promote COVID-19 awareness. Participants registered for the competition through Google Form, making the process convenient and efficient. All participants received online e-certificates as a token of appreciation for their participation and contribution. The first three winners from each group were felicitated with trophies, which were sent to them through courier services, adhering to safety protocols. The competition witnessed the active participation of students not only from the local region but also from outside Maharashtra, indicating the widespread impact of the event.

The Online Drawing Competition for COVID-19 Awareness conducted by Pravara Rural College of Architecture effectively spread the message of staying safe and vigilant during the pandemic through the creative expressions of the participants. By utilizing technology and promoting safety measures, the event demonstrated the college's commitment to engaging and educating students during challenging times. The competition's success lies in the collective effort to create awareness and sensitize the younger generation about the importance of combating the pandemic together.

Summary:

Amid the COVID-19 pandemic, a remarkable initiative known as "PRCA Corona Warriors" was launched by the students of Pravara Rural college Of Architecture, Loni. In a time when students were attending classes remotely from their hometowns due to the pandemic, this initiative demonstrated their unwavering commitment to social responsibility. Led by the dedicated Activity Coordinator, Dipeeka Arbatti, the campaign aimed to extend a helping hand to those who had lost their livelihoods by collecting essential donations.

Despite being physically dispersed across different locations, the students united virtually to support their community during these challenging times. Dipeeka Arbatti played a pivotal role in coordinating and motivating the participants to contribute towards the noble cause of assisting those in need.

The PRCA Corona Warriors initiative transcended geographical boundaries, symbolizing the power of unity even in the face of physical separation.

Remote Engagement: Despite being physically distant from each other and their college campus, the students engaged actively in the initiative. They displayed adaptability by transitioning their efforts to an online platform.

Virtual Donations: The initiative encouraged students to donate essential items such as food, hygiene products, and other necessities to aid those who had lost their jobs due to the pandemic. This demonstrated that compassion knows no boundaries, even in a virtual world.

Empowerment: The initiative empowered students to take meaningful action from their homes. By participating, they gained a sense of agency and positively contributed to society during a time of crisis.

Community Impact: The donated items reached the hands of families and individuals facing financial hardships. The campaign directly alleviated their struggles, reflecting the profound impact of collective generosity.

Awareness and Solidarity: PRCA Corona Warriors not only provided material support but also raised awareness about the challenges faced by the economically vulnerable. It fostered a sense of solidarity and empathy within the student community.

Life Skills: Engaging in this initiative nurtured essential life skills such as leadership, empathy, and effective communication. These skills are crucial for personal and professional growth.

In conclusion, the PRCA Corona Warriors initiative exemplified the indomitable spirit of students from PRCA. Despite being physically separated and attending classes online, they united under the leadership of Dipeeka Arbatti to make a tangible difference in their society. This campaign not only provided vital resources to those in need but also showcased the students' resilience, adaptability, and commitment to social welfare during a global crisis.

Summary:

On December 30, 2020, Pravara Rural College of Architecture (PRCA) organized a commendable Tree Plantation Event on the occasion of PadmabhushanDr.BalasahebVikhe Patil's Death Anniversary. Spearheaded by Ar. Kapil Burhade, the event aimed to pay homage to Dr.BalasahebVikhe Patil's legacy while promoting environmental conservation and sustainability. Despite the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the college orchestrated a meaningful and impactful event.

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the event was limited to the college staff, with 8 teachers participating in total. Despite the constraints, the participants engaged in planting 5 native trees, contributing to the local ecosystem and demonstrating the college's dedication to sustainable practices. The event was conducted adhering to safety protocols, ensuring the well-being of all participants. The ceremony commenced with a tribute to Dr.BalasahebVikhe Patil's life and work, highlighting his significant contributions to education and rural development. The event provided an excellent opportunity for the college community to connect with nature and strengthen their commitment to environmental conservation.

Impact:

The event succeeded in achieving its intended impact:

- It honored the memory of Dr.BalasahebVikhe Patil, commemorating his contributions and inspiring others to follow in his footsteps.
  - The planted trees added a touch of natural splendor to the campus, underscoring the institution's commitment to sustainability.
  - By involving teachers, the event set an example for students, promoting a culture of environmental responsibility and care.
  - The event effectively conveyed the importance of trees, fostering an increased understanding of their multifaceted significance.
- Faculty members actively participated in planting the saplings. The activity is coordinated by Ar. Kapil Burhade. 08staff are present for the activity. The college principal emphasized the importance of tree plantation and its relevance to Dr.Vikhe Patil's vision of a sustainable future for society. In the end at 10am, the Ar. Rajeshwari Jagtap principal PRCA thanks to all teaching, non-teaching staff for successful event.
